

Insomnia

How can I sleep
how can I rest
when my book isn't finished and ready for the press

I've got so far to go
so much to get down
my body is tiring
but I can't lay down

my pen won't write
as fast as i think
when I get on a roll
I run out of ink

my papers are crumpled
and most of them tornn
from thoughts I discarded before they were born

I havn't a deadline
but my work's at it's best when ever I think of it is when I can write
so
how can I sleep
my mind's full of wonder that must get to press
