

The Queen of Dreams

The world is full of dreamers
And I am full of dreams
What makes me a believer
I'm the head dreamer
A princess or queen
Of all the dreams
That were ever dreamed

It is odd when you think of it
And as strange as it seems
I'm the one controlling things
When you dream
When I dream
The dreams that we dream
I'm the head dreamer
Or is this just another dream
